Mr. D. E. Seibel,
Sect'y., - Treas., Milwaukee Radio Amateurs' Club, Inc.,
914 Center St.,
Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear 9HO:

We have your letter of the 23rd inst., and it gives us pleasure to send you by mail 100 application blanks, one dozen assorted copies of QST and two dozen copies of the Handbook. Unfortunately we have no more "The Story of the A.R.R.L." pamphlet.

In order to make it an object for your club, we shall be glad to allow the club 50¢ on each application for membership or subscription obtained and, for every Handbook sold 33¢. After the Show is over you can then remit to us $2.00 for each application accepted and 67¢ for each Handbook sold. Any copies of the Handbook on hand at the close of the Show should, of course, be returned to us for credit.

We sincerely hope that you will have a successful Show and that your club will again do justice to its reputation.

Our 73.

Very sincerely yours,

A.A. Hebert

Treasurer - Fieldman.
